Departments consider the responsible use of personal information to be a critical element in enabling the Internet to reach its potential as a serious tool for personal and professional activities. As the Internet changes our lives in a number of ways and are committed to respecting your privacy.

In general, you can visit <etawah.nic.in> without telling us who you are or revealing any personal information about yourself. We use your IP address to help diagnose problems with our server and / or to administer our Web site. This gives us an idea of which parts of our site users are visiting. We do not link IP addresses to anything personally identifiable. This means that a user session will be tracked, but the user will be anonymous.

There are times, however, when we may need information from you, such as your name, home or business address and e-mail address. Departments will seek to let you know before they collect any personal information from you over the Internet. When departments receives information about your session or about you, they may use it for research or to improve site and the services they offer you. They will ask you if you want them to use that information to continue contact with you by departments via e-mail or other means. If you do not want them to contact you, you can choose to "opt out," and departments will endeavor to respect your wishes.
